- Wrestlers and coaches will be admitted to the main floor with a pass only.
- HOSPITALITY ROOM/FOOD WILL NOT BE PROVIDED FOR COACHES
- Athlete friendly food options available in the South Lobby
- Only coaches and wrestlers with appropriate tags will be admitted to the mat side area. The coach tag will be a different color than the participant tag. Each school will receive a maximum of three coach tags.
- Replacement cost for lost tags is the same as for regular admission. This includes any wrestler who loses their tag.
- Pairings for the state tournament will be released on the IESA website after the sectional results have been reported to the IESA Office. Hopefully, this will be no later than 4:00 p.m. on Monday, March 4.
- Wrestlers will be allowed to bring in coolers with food and drink on Friday only. Once the weigh-in process is completed, no cooler of any type will be allowed. Wrestlers will be allowed to eat and drink the food brought in on Friday until 11:30 a.m. Coolers must remain with the wrestlers in sections 101-105. NOTE---NO GLASS CONTAINERS OF ANY TYPE WILL BE ALLOWED AT ANY TIME. Please make sure to take all materials with you by the end of the day. The area will be cleared at the end of the night.

- Wrestlers will NOT be permitted to bring in coolers on Saturday. Duffle bags brought into the Convocation Center on Saturday will be checked for outside food and drink.
- Coaches, please make sure to use the provided trash bags and clean up your area of garbage and debris at the end of each day. Please pick up all trash!
- Each coach must have in his possession parental permission for emergency medical care (form provided by your school, not the IESA) for each contestant.
- Medical personnel will be on hand during the tournament. If you have any wrestlers who have had to complete a skin condition form, please be sure that you bring that form with you in case a mat official should question a skin condition during weigh-in.
- There is not a will-call window for coaches. Coaches must enter the Convocation Center with the team. Coaches who are not able to enter with the team should have the head coach leave a coaches tag at Entrance #5. Envelopes will be provided by the IESA for this. Coaches who fail to leave a tag for assistant coaches not with the team will require the assistant coach to pay admission at the main entrance (Entrance #2)
- Wrestlers and coaches must enter and exit through the Entrance #5 only. Pass-outs for wrestlers and coaches will not be given at any other gate.
- Only wrestlers and coaches may sit in the lower bowl.
- Event Pro Photography will be on hand to photograph each team and individuals. They will have information regarding purchase of photographs displayed all weekend.
- No signs, banners or balloons of any type are allowed in the Convocation Center
