3.042: During the IESA season for a sport, as defined for each sport in Division 4 of these By-Laws, students shall not practice or participate in any non-school competition in the same sport either as an individual or a team member. Examples of non-school competition include (but not limited to) the following: organized leagues, park and recreation leagues, club teams, and youth sport leagues. One Exception--Students may try-out for the school baseball or softball team while they are still a member of summer little league or summer all-star team but may not practice with the school team while still participating for those teams. Violation shall cause ineligibility to be determined by the Executive Director. To report a violation of this By-Law, member schools must submit the appropriate form to the IESA Office.

This form is to be used to report any violation of By-law 3.042. This form must be filled out and signed by the principal of the reporting school.
